Carrie Russell	22,984,948	51.74	21,435,774	48.26

All director nominees were re-elected. However, pursuant to the Company's policy relating to Majority Voting in Director Elections (the "Policy") and Toronto Stock Exchange rules, any director in respect of whom more votes were withheld than were cast for election must submit his or her resignation as a director of the Company for consideration by the Board of Directors of the Company (the "Board"). Pursuant to the Policy, Mr. Hannay has submitted his resignation as a director of the Company and the Governance, Conduct Review and Compensation Committee of the Company (the "Committee") will consider the resignation and make a recommendation to the Board whether or not such resignation should be accepted. In accordance with the Policy, the Board will make its decision on the Committee's recommendation within 90 days following the AGM. The Company will issue a press release disclosing the Board's determination at that time. The foregoing does not affect Mr. Hannay's role as President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company.

Appointment of Auditor

By a show of hands, shareholders voted in favour of re-appointing Ernst & Young LLP as auditor and authorized the Board to fix the auditor's remuneration for the ensuing year.
